Shortly after 7 o'clock this morning the Lawmakers will arrive in the city from Roanoke, where they have been up against the real article of tough luck. They will be in good condition, for they

They will be in good condition, for they will take sleepers from Lynchburg, and will get plenty of rest by the time they get here.

Lynchburg will be here for the series—to-day, to-morrow and Saturday—and if Richmond can take the top-notchers down some, it will help all the rest Lynchburg opened the season here and beat the Lawmakers only one game out of the three. In their home they took two out of the three.

From this is would seem that the teams are pretty evenly matched, and a baitle royal is expected. The mighty Moser will do the box work one day for the visitors, and Eckstone, Still and Long will, perhaps, work for the Richmonders.

Portsmouth and Danville are flirting with each other for the last rung in the ladder. Barley Kaln appears to have some men with him who know the game thoroughly, but yet they can't win. Benny, for Danville, has switched around ream and continues to lose. Reggy, the third baseman, pitched a game this week. Titman played leftfield for the Lawmakers in Tuesday's game and received two chances. He got two of the six hits and scored one of the four runs.

Cuddy is holding up the good work. He smacked a three-bagger in Tuesday's game and took all five chances he had at second.

Jack (Chesbro, the once invinci-ble spit-ball twirler in the Big League, got bumped and bumped hard by St. Louis this week. He was relieved by Clarkson, and the St. Louis players just, kept right on hitting 'em safely. It shows that any of the pitchers will get hit at

Many Lynchburg fans will come to Many Lynchburg fans will come to Richmond and witness each game here this week. The enthuslasm in Lynchburg over the ball team is unlimited. They say that Smith, the mysterious pitcher for the RoanoRe team, hasn't any curves or speed, but yet he wins his games. What's the use of throwing a curve Tall if no batter can land seedly on a straight on? safely on a straight one?

Shaver has been bought from Lynchburg by Danville and is keeping up his good work in left field. He is a fast fielder, and is batting well above the three-hundred mark.

King Keiley added another bright shining star to his crown Tuesday, when he nailed one that brought in two runs and won the game for the Highlanders.

Another great game will be played here next Wednesday, when the Com-monwealth and the Westmoreland Clubs Tackle each other for the champlonship. Fach club has won a game, and this one next week is to settle the question of which is the best. The Elks will chal-lenge the winners.

ROANOKE, 7; RICHMOND, 3. A Game of Many Hits and a Few

Errors.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, VA., June 6.—Roanoke took the third game of the series with Richmond this afterhoon by a score of 7 to 4. It was a game of many hits and few errors. Cassidy, Roanoke's pitcher, had the visitors at his mercy after the first inning, they falling to connect safely with the ball thereafter.

Roanoke pounced on Eckstone in the first inning and continued to pound him until there were twelve safe hits marked up against him. In the seventh Workman landed the ball in center field for a circuit of the bases, bringing in two men ahead of him. The visitors were unable to cross the plate after the first inning. Score:
